AGENT AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT, dated this _____ day of _____, 20____ is between: _____
(hereinafter referred to as "Agent"), and Central United Life Insurance Company, Investors Consolidated Insurance Company and Family Life Insurance Company (hereinafter referred to as the "Company").

1. APPOINTMENT

The Company appoints the Agent in those territories in which both the Company and the Agent are licensed to do business, to solicit and procure applications in connection with the sale of insurance products offered by the Company subject to the terms, conditions, and limitations set forth in this Agreement.

2. APPOINTMENT OF OTHER AGENTS

The Agent is authorized to refer other agents to the Company to solicit and procure insurance applications under the Agent's management and oversight (hereinafter referred to as "Other Agents"). The Other Agents must be properly licensed by the appropriate insurance regulatory authority. The Agent shall provide the referral of the Other Agents to the Company in writing by identifying the Other Agent and specifying that the Other Agent is going to solicit and procure the sale of Company insurance products under the Agent's management and oversight. The Agent shall also request the Company to code the Other Agent as being part of the Agent's hierarchy and shall obtain from the Other Agent the forms necessary to complete the contracting process.

Upon Agent's referral of an Other Agent to the Company, the Company shall determine, in its sole discretion, whether it wants to contract with the Other Agent. All contracts made with an Other Agent shall be made directly with the Company in writing on the Company's contract form which shall become effective when executed by the Company. The Company may refuse to contract with any proposed Other Agent and may terminate any contract with an Other Agent without notice to the Agent.

As used herein, the term "Agent" or "Other Agent" shall mean any person who procures, supervises, or otherwise participates in the procurement of applications for insurance products offered by the Company.

3. COMPENSATION

The Company will pay the Agent first year and renewal compensation on original premiums paid on policies written and delivered by the Agent and accepted by the Company at the rates and for the periods and terms set forth in the attached Agent's Commission Schedule, subject to the conditions set forth herein. The Company will also pay the Agent first year and renewal compensation on original premiums paid on policies written and delivered by any appointed or assigned Other Agents as set forth in the attached Agent's Commission Schedule, less the commission earned by the Other Agent whose commission rate shall be on file with the Company.

- A. If insurance in the Company is issued (replacements, conversions and exchanges) which takes the place of insurance terminated or to be terminated in the Company after the new insurance is issued, the Company reserves the right to determine the rate of commission to be allowed, if any.
- B. If Agents Commission Schedule rates are not shown or special rate quotations are made, rates shall be such as may be fixed by the Company.
- C. If the Company shall return to a policyholder all or any portion of the premiums on a policy or contract, the Agent shall, upon demand, repay to the Company the correspondingly proportionate part of the commission received by him on account of such policy or contract.
- D. The Company reserves the right to change the provisions of the Commission Schedule with thirty (30) days written notice from the Company to the Agent or Other Agent. However, any such change shall only apply to applications submitted to and accepted by the Company after such notice.

4. GENERAL PROVISIONS

The Agent agrees to comply with all applicable insurance laws and regulations and with all the written and printed rules, regulations, and instructions of the Company now in force and such as may be hereafter adopted.

- A. It is understood and agreed that the Agent shall be considered an independent contractor. As such, the Agent shall be free to exercise judgment as to the persons from whom applications for insurance policies and annuity contracts will be solicited and as to the supervision and direction of appointed or assigned Other Agents. No other provision of this Agreement or any rule or regulation of the Company shall be construed to abridge this freedom or create the relationship of employer and employee between the Company and the Agent.
- B. The Agent shall maintain accurate records of transactions made on behalf of the Company in a form satisfactory to the Company. Such books and records shall be open for examination by authorized representatives of the Company and shall remain in the property of the Company. The Agent shall return all undelivered policies to the Company for cancellation in accordance with its instructions.

- C. The Agent has no authority to receive any money on behalf of the Company except initial premiums and then only in strict compliance with the terms by the Company and within the rules of the Company. Money collected or received by the Agent for the Company shall be immediately paid over to the Company.
- D. Without liability to the Agent, the Company shall have the right to make changes in its method of conducting business; to make other appointments in the area as from time to time may seem to the Company to be desirable, and to discontinue writing all or any part of its business in any jurisdiction.
- E. The Company shall have a prior lien on any and all sums of money due or to become due to the Agent under this or any prior Agreement with the Company for any indebtedness, obligation or liability of the Agent to the Company; and the Company may at any time offset against such sums of money the amount of any such indebtedness, obligation or liability.

It is understood that any "advance" or "commission advance" made by the Company to the Agent or an Other Agent from whom the Agent receives an override shall be a loan which shall create an indebtedness of the Agent to the Company repayable upon demand. The Company can require an immediate repayment of such indebtedness regardless of whether or not future compensation payable to the Agent appears to be adequate to offset such indebtedness.

In the event the Company is required to pursue collection procedures in order to collect any indebtedness, the Agent agrees to be liable for any and all Company expense so incurred.

No assignment of compensation accrued or to accrue under this Agreement shall be valid as against the Company unless authorized in writing by the Company.

- F. The Agent and any appointed or assigned Other Agents under the Agent shall have no authority to make, alter or modify any policy or receipt, nor to waive a forfeiture or any provision or condition of any policy issued by the Company, nor to incur any liability on behalf of or against the Company, except as expressly provided herein or otherwise authorized in writing by the Company.
- G. The Agent is not authorized and agrees not to publish, issue or circulate any advertising material, circular or pamphlet relating to the Company or its products unless the same shall have been approved in writing by an officer of the Company.
- H. The failure of the Company to exact strict compliance with the terms of this Agreement or the failure to declare any default when the same shall become known to it, shall not operate as a waiver of such terms nor release the Agent from the obligation to perform this Agreement strictly in accordance with its terms.
- I. All accounts and policyholders are considered to be accounts of the Company and not the Agent.
- J. The Agent authorizes the Company to furnish information, upon inquiry from any person, regarding the Agent's record with the Company, personal character, habits, ability, or cause of leaving the service of the Company. No liability shall be incurred by the Company for release of such information.
- K. It is agreed that this contract shall be interpreted and governed by the laws of the state of Texas, the state in which it is executed. It is further agreed that in the event of any litigation between Agent and Company arising out of this Agreement, venue shall be had in the State Courts of Harris County, Texas.

5. PROHIBITED ACTS

Agent shall not, during the term of this Agreement or any time after the termination of this Agreement, directly or indirectly:

- A. Divulge or disclose the names of the Company's policyholders and accounts to any other person, firm or corporation which is involved in the insurance business; or
- B. Seek to induce, promote or encourage any Company policyholders to relinquish or discontinue their Company policies. The items listed in A and B shall be referred to herein as the "Prohibited Acts".

In the event Agent engages in any of the Prohibited Acts, whether during the term of this Agreement or post-termination, Agent shall forever forfeit all rights to be paid any first year or renewal commissions and such commissions shall revert to the Company.

6. TERMINATION

- A. The Company shall have the right to immediately terminate this Agreement if the Agent, either directly or indirectly, by himself or as the agent of another engages in any of the following:
 1. Engages in any of the Prohibited Acts described in Section 5; or
 2. Wrongfully withholds any funds, policies, premium receipts or other property of the Company or an applicant for insurance; or
 3. Violates the insurance laws or regulations of any state in which the Agent solicits applications.
- B. This Agreement shall automatically terminate upon the death of the Agent if the Agent is an individual, the dissolution of the partnership if the Agent is a partnership, or the dissolution of a corporation, if the Agent is a corporation.
- C. Termination of this Agreement shall automatically terminate any previous agreement between the Company and the Agent. If requested, the Agent shall return to the Company at his own expense all rate books and other supplies furnished the Agent which shall remain the property of the Company.

D. This Agreement, unless otherwise terminated as provided above, may be terminated either by the Company or the Agent by giving the other party thirty days notice in writing at the last known address of such other party.

7. COMMISSIONS AFTER TERMINATION

A. If this Agreement is terminated under Section 5 or 6A, Agent shall forever forfeit all rights to be paid any first year or renewal commissions and such commissions shall revert to the Company. No additional first year or renewal commissions will be paid to Agent.

B. Except as set forth in Sections 5 and 6A, if this Agreement is terminated, the Agent shall receive vested commissions with respect to premiums paid to and accepted by the Company on and after the effective date of such termination, as follows:

- On business written by the Agent and his or her appointed or assigned Other Agents, the commission will be paid as provided in the Commission Schedule attached hereto.
- On business written by the Agent and his or her appointed or assigned Other Agents prior to the date of this Agreement, the commission will be paid as provided under the terms of any previous Agreements, except as otherwise provided in the Commission Schedule.
- After termination, the commission shall be payable only so long as the total compensation payable exceeds $600.00 for the calendar year. If the total compensation payable hereunder is less than $600 for the calendar year, the Agent shall forever forfeit all rights to be paid any additional compensation and such compensation shall revert to the Company.
- In case of the Agent's death, vested commission payments (pursuant to this subsection B) will be made to the surviving spouse or to the estate of the Agent when there is no surviving spouse so long as the total compensation payable exceeds $600.00 on a calendar year basis.

8. PRIOR AGREEMENTS

This Agreement replaces all prior verbal or written agreements between the Company and the Agent and the provisions hereof between the Company and the Agent shall be applicable to all business written by the Agent and Other Agents assigned to Agent except that all first year and renewal commissions on business written under any prior Agreement will be paid in accordance with the provisions of that Agreement. All prior Agreements are otherwise terminated.

Representative Agreement with Family Life Insurance Company

10700 Northwest Freeway, Houston, Texas 77092

Between Family Life Insurance Company, hereinafter called the Company and the Corporation or Partnership who is:

_____ hereinafter called the Associate and between the Associate and the Representative who is:

_____ hereafter called the Representative.

1. APPOINTMENT

The Company appoints the Agent in those territories in which both the Company, the Associate and the Agent are licensed to do business, to solicit and procure applications for all types of insurance and annuities issued by the Company subject to the terms, conditions, and limitations set forth herein.

2. COMPENSATION

All Compensation payable by the Company on such applications shall be governed solely by the contract between the Company and the Associate, and the Company shall discharge all responsibility under this contract by crediting or paying such earnings to the Associate. The division of such earnings between the Representative and the Associate, once paid by the Company to the Associate, shall be a matter solely between the Representative and the Associate to which the Company is not part.

3. GENERAL PROVISIONS

The Representative agrees to comply with all applicable insurance laws and regulations and with all the written and printed rules, regulations and instructions of the Company now in force and such as may hereafter be adopted. It is understood and agreed that the Representative shall be considered an independent contractor. The Representative shall be free to exercise independent judgement as to the persons to be solicited and the time and place of solicitation. No other provision of this Agreement nor any rule or regulation of the Company shall be construed to abridge this freedom or create the relationship of employer and employee between the Company and the Representative.

The Representative and/or Associate shall maintain in good order the records and accounts of business transacted on behalf of the Company for inspection by, or delivery to the Company upon request.

The Representative has no authority to:

1. make, alter, or modify any policy or receipt nor to waive any forfeiture or any provision or condition of any policy issued by the Company.
2. receive any money on behalf of the Company except initial premiums and in strict compliance with the terms and conditions of the Company and within the rules of the Company. Money collected or received by the Representative for the Company shall immediately be paid over to the Company.

3. endorse any checks payable to the Company;

4. issue or circulate any advertising material, circular or pamphlet relating to the Company (other than materials prepared by the Company) unless the same shall have been approved in writing by the Company.

5. bind or obligate the Company or subject the Company to any liability except as expressly provided herein or otherwise authorized in writing by the Company.

The Representative shall be liable to the Company for damage or loss sustained by it as a result of any unauthorized acts of the Representative. The Representative specifically agrees to indemnify the Company from liability of any type for judgements, litigation costs, attorneys' fees, fines, penalties or other liabilities incurred by the Company as a result of such unauthorized acts.

The failure of the Company to exact strict compliance with the terms of this Agreement or the failure to declare any default when the same shall become known to the Company, shall not operate as a waiver of such conditions nor release the Representative from any obligation to perform this Agreement strictly in accordance with its terms.

3. TERMINATION

The Representative's withholding or converting to his own use, funds or property of the Company, an applicant or insured, or his violation of any governmental law or regulation relating to insurance, shall constitute an automatic breach of this Agreement which shall forthwith terminate.

This Agreement shall automatically terminate upon the death of the Representative.

Termination of this Agreement shall automatically terminate any previous agreement between the Company and the Representative. If requested, the Representative shall return to the Company at his own expense all rate books and other supplies furnished the Associate which shall be the property of the Company.

This Agreement, unless otherwise terminated as provided above, may be terminated either by the Company or the Representative by giving the other party fifteen days notice in writing at the last known address of such other party.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 2. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 2.

Social security number or

Employer identification number

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 2 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. person (including a U.S. resident alien).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the Certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. (See the instructions on page 2.)

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must get your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to give your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee.

If you are a foreign person, use the appropriate Form W-8. See Pub. 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities.

Note: If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 30% of such payments after December 31, 2001 (29% after December 31, 2003). This is called backup withholding. Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester, or
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 2 for details), or
3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN, or
4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or

5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See the instructions on page 2 and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of Federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Family Life Insurance Company Persistency Sensitive Advance/Loan Agreement

This Advance/Loan Agreement (hereinafter, "Agreement"), dated this _____ day of _____, 20__ is entered into by and between: _____ (hereinafter, "Agent") and Family Life Insurance Company ("Family Life"). This Agreement will be effective on the date shown on page 2 of this Agreement. This Agreement sets forth the terms under which Family Life will advance funds to Agent against future commissions Agent expects to earn on premiums paid on new policies after the effective date. This Agreement is supplemental to and made a part of any other contracts and agreements entered into by and between Agent and Family Life.

Advance duration 6 months 9 months 12* months

 For Medicare Supplement policy issue ages under 65 and issue ages 80 and above, a nine month advance on commissions will apply.

1. All sums advanced to Agent by Family Life shall constitute a loan to Agent, which Agent agrees to repay to Family Life in accordance with this Agreement. All sums advanced to Agent may be referred to herein as "Advanced Funds".

2. Agent agrees that all Advanced Funds shall be due and payable upon written demand or, if no demand is made, the Advanced Funds shall be repaid by applying future monthly commissions earned and due to Agent against Agent's outstanding principal and interest balance.

3. Interest will accrue on Advanced Funds owed by Agent at a rate of one (1%) percent per month. Interest shall be added to Agent's outstanding monthly balance.

4. The unearned portion of any advance on commissions from a lapsed policy or from a policy with its premium more than 65 days past due will be deducted from Agent's next commission statement. Any termination or modification of all or part of a policy or its premium which results in Family Life not receiving all of the policy premiums during the first year as originally paid may result in a reduction in future advance payments and charge backs to Agent's commission statement.

5. Advances will be based on annualized commissions earned by Agent on paid business based on the following type of business at a percentage to be communicated to agent and is subject to change:

- Medicare Supplement Policies Plans

6. Advances will be made to the Agent on a weekly basis. If daily advances are preferred, they will be provided through automatic direct deposit into Agent's designated checking or savings account. Additional forms are required to arrange for direct deposit. Advances on health policies are generated after the application has been accepted, underwriting requirements have been completed, and the policy has been paid.

7. General

- No advance will be made on business written on Agent's life or on members of Agent's immediate family, policies for which only partial payment is made, or any replacement/conversion policies.
- The obligation of Family Life to make advances pursuant to this Agreement may be terminated at any time. Agent shall not be entitled to any further advances if Agent's first year premium retention is lower than 70% or declines to a level lower than 70% during any 12 month period after the first year.
- If Agent's Contract and Agreements with Family Life are terminated for any reason while this Agreement (which is an Amendment to Agent's Contract) is in effect or if Agent fails to comply with any of the conditions or requirements of this Agreement, this Agreement shall automatically terminate and all funds advanced shall immediately become due and payable to Family Life. Agent shall automatically forfeit to Family Life all of his or her rights to all present and future compensation from Family Life until all advanced funds are repaid in full. In the event Family Life is required to pursue collection of any unpaid advanced funds, Agent agrees he/she will be liable for any and all collection costs and expenses incurred, including attorneys' fees and court costs. This Agreement shall be construed under and in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas and if any litigation should ensue as a result of this agreement, venue will be in the appropriate court in Harris County, Texas.
- Agent hereby grants to Family Life a security interest in and to any and all commission sums or accounts which are, or may become due or owing in the future, to secure any loan or advance made by Family Life to Agent.
- Family Life will establish the advance percentage, the advance limits, the applicable advance duration, and the applicable plans. Family Life may change the advance percentage, advance limits, advance duration, and applicable plans at its discretion with notice to your Marketing Director for policies written after the date of the change.
- Agent with outstanding Advanced Funds cannot assign their commissions to another agent.
